Challenging And Encouraging God's Remnant To Remain Faithful

“Woe Unto Them That Call Evil Good, And Good Evil.”

(Isaiah 5:20)

Who Was Nelson Mandela?

Mandela was the head of the African National Congress Party (ANC) a party responsible for decades of murder, terrorism, and violence. When arrested, he pleaded guilty to 156 acts of public violence including mobilizing terrorist bombing campaigns, which planted bombs in public places, including the Johannesburg railway station. Many innocent people, including women and children, were killed by Nelson Mandela's MK terrorists. To this, and 155 other offenses, Mandela pleaded guilty!

When South African President P.W. Botha gave Mandela the opportunity to walk out of jail a free man if he would renounced the ANC's terrorism, Mandela refused. Mandela was the head of UmKhonto we Sizwe, (MK), the terrorist wing of the ANC and South African Communist Party. He wrote a book called "How To Be A Good Communist." He said, "The cause of Communism is the greatest cause in the history of mankind." Communism has butchered 160 million of it's own citizens who disagreed with them. Mandela said, "Under the Communist Party government, South Africa will become the land of milk and honey."

Since Mandela took control of South Africa, according to Transparency International's 2013 report, South Africa is listed among the most corrupt countries in the world, Eighty-three percent of South Africans believe the police force is corrupt, and thirty-six percent admit to paying bribes to police officers. South Africa has fifty-nine murders a day, 145 rapes every day, and 752 serious assaults a every day.

Did You Know...

As recently as 2008, Mandela required a special State Department waiver to enter the United States because his name was on a terrorist watch list.

Mandela said,

“If there is a country that has committed unspeakable atrocities in the world, it is the United States of America. They don't care for human beings.”

President Obama said,

“I am one of the countless millions who drew inspirations from Nelson Mandela's life,” Obama said. “I cannot fully imagine my own life without the example that Nelson Mandela set. So long as I live, I will do what I can to learn from him.”

Thirty-seven percent of the men admit to raping someone. Under Mandela's reign South Africa has become the rape and murder capital of the world. One in three women will be raped before they are eighteen and fifty percent of all women will be raped at some point in their lifetime. So much for Mandela's "land of milk and honey."

Mandela's intent was to create a communist government in South Africa. He wanted to achieve his aims with violence against the whites. Blacks who were looking for change through peace were necklaced (the practice of putting gas soaked tires around the shoulders and arms of the victim and setting them on fire.)

When Mandela was arrested on the farm where he stayed they found 210,000 hand grenades, 48,000 land mines, 1,500 time devices, 144 tons of ammonium nitrate and more than fifty tons of high explosives. They also found 107 plans to blow up specific buildings. Mandela was not arrested on political grounds, he was arrested as a terrorist who was guilty of placing bombs in public places killing innocent civilians including women and children.

Mandela married Winnie on June 14, 1958. Her father warned her, "If you marry a wizard, then you must become a witch." In 1986 Winnie said, "With our boxes of matches and our necklaces we shall liberate this country." This was widely seen as an endorsement of necklacing. She once murdered a fourteen year old boy by having barbwire wrapped around him, a rubber tire placed over his head, filling it with gasoline and lighting him on fire. The Attorney General refused to prosecute her for political reasons in spite of the fact that there was a list of thirty crimes against her ranging from high treason to murder.

After Mandela was released from prison and became the elected president of South Africa, Mandela's friends were some of the worst monsters of the 20th century. Mandela was an avowed Communist who sided with Cuban murderer and dictator Fidel Castro, he was a friend of Ghadafi and Yasser Arafat.

President Obama recently said Mandela was "a giant of history" and the "last great liberator of the 20th century...We will never see the likes of Nelson Mandela again. But let me say to the people of Africa, and young people around the world: You can make his life's work your own."

The Purpose of This Article

The purpose of this article is not to expose Mandela for the evil man that he was, all that information is available on the internet for anyone who wants to take the time to search it out. My purpose is to wake up Christians to the hour in which we live. We are living in a day when evil is considered good and good is considered evil. History is simply repeating itself.

Isaiah 5:20 forewarns us of this day,
"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil."

Did You Know...

Mandela said,

"Long live the Cuban revolution. Long live comrade Fidel Castro...the Cuban revolution has been a source of inspiration to all freedom-loving people."

Mandela said,

"Yasser Arafat was one of the outstanding freedom fighters of this generation, one who gave his entire life to the cause of the Palestinian people."

Mandela said,

"The cause of communism is the greatest cause in the history of mankind!"

Mandela said,

"There's one place where (Fidel Castro's) Cuba stands out head and shoulders above the rest – that is in its love for human rights and liberty!"

Mandela did not seek to hide his past, in his autobiography 'The Long Walk To Freedom' he admits 'signing off' the 1983 Church Street bombing carried out by the ANC that killed nineteen innocent people including women and children and injuring another 200.

There is no evidence that Mandela personally killed anyone but the same could be said about Hitler.

God’s People Went Into Bondage Because They Refused To Listen To God.

Concerning Israel’s Plight We Read...

First Corinthians 10:11,

“Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.”

Israel’s Low Spiritual Condition

Isaiah 1:9,

“Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.”

Israel’s Problem, Like Ours, Was The Miserable Condition of God’s Spiritual Leaders.

Isaiah 1:10,

“Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers...”

Isaiah 1:23,

“Thy princes are rebellious...”

Isaiah 5:13,

“Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.”

Israel’s Obnoxious Worship

Isaiah 1:11-16,

“To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? 13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. 14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. 15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. 16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil.”

God’s Offer Refused By His People

Isaiah 1:11-16,

“Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. 19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: 20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.” God’s people refused His offer...

“Therefore”

Isaiah 5:13,

“Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.”

Isaiah 5:25,

“Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people.”

Did You Know...

After fourteen years of rule by Mandela and his successor Mbeki, corruption is rife, the country is beset with power cuts and the infrastructure is falling apart.

The nation's great cities like Durban and Johannesburg, which once rivaled cities like Vancouver or Toronto have become decaying crime-ridden slums within the past ten years.

Winnie, And Nelson Mandela With Communist Yossel Slovo At An ANC Rally In 1990

Slovo joined the Communist Party in 1942. He was arrested and detained for two months during the Treason Trial of 1956. He was later arrested for six months during the State of Emergency declared after the Shapererville massacre in 1960.

Sixty-nine people were killed, including eight women and ten children, and 180 injured, including 31 women and 19 children. Many were shot in the back as they turned to flee.

God's Final Response

Psalm 106:40-42,

"Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them. Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand."

"Written For Our Admonition"

First Corinthians 10:11,

"Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come."

We may be prone to ask the question; how could our national leaders be so blind as to support Mandela?

We Better Look In The Mirror First

Jack Hyles and Curtis Hutson promoted the damnable heresy that repentance is the enemy of soul-winning. Hutson even removed all references to repentance from The Sword of The Lord's new edition of "Soul Stirring Songs And Hymns." The response of our leaders in our fundamental movement was to continue to promote these men.

Jack Schaap taught the blasphemy that communion was like having sex with Jesus. The response of our leaders in our fundamental movement was to continue to promote him. It wasn't until he was put in prison for having sex with a minor that they backed away from him. Apparently in our fundamental movement blasphemy is acceptable; however, sex with a minor in the church office during a youth meeting is not considered to be politically correct.

First Baptist Church, Hammond, Indiana, has been a cesspool of immorality for about forty years. The response of our fundamental leaders has been, and still is, to support the ministry there.

We have no reason to be shocked at our government leaders promoting Mandela because it is the politically safe thing for them to do. We need only to look in the mirror. By-the-way, before you "amen" this article remember, silence always gives consent.

Like The Days of Isaiah...

Isaiah 1:9,

"Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah."

These Verses Are Still In The Bible

Romans 16:17

"Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them."

Second Thessalonians 3:6

"Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us."

What part of these verses is too difficult to understand?

Or do we think these verses only apply to evangelicals when they mess up?

Romans 13:11

"Knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep..."
