THE TRUTH

We can deny the truth, ridicule it, mock it, ignore it and attack it; however, when all is said and done, truth is truth. The dictionary says truth is “that which is accordance with fact.”

Facts are indisputable.

Jesus said, “Ye shall know the truth” (John 8:32).

Lifting Up The STANDARD

“When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him” (Isaiah 59:19).

THE TRUTH ABOUT OUR MOVEMENT

“Reasoning Among Themselves”

Several times in the New Testament, we find the disciples “reasoning among themselves,” which was really stupid considering the fact that the Son of God was in their midst and He would gladly have given them the truth about anything they were discussing had they thought to include Him in their “reasoning.” Reasoning is the power of the mind to think and make judgments by the process of logic. The problem with our human logic is the Word of God plainly tells us that our logic is opposite to God’s ways.

Isaiah 55:8,9,

“For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

We Reasoned Among Ourselves That We Needed A Movement

In the early 1900s, liberalism, modernism, communism, socialism, and many other “isms” were taking hold in our world and so some of our leaders got together and reasoned that we should have an “ism” of our own. We called it “fundamentalism.” The outcome of that reasoning was a series of articles that were published that were known as “The Fundamentals.”

The preface to The Fundamentals, written by R.A. Torrey, reads...

“*The oversight of the selection of articles to be included in The Fundamentals was given to a special committee of men who were known to be sound in the faith*” (Emphasis mine).

Reasoning That Bigger Is Better

Our “special committee,” armed with the logical humanistic reasoning that “bigger is better” decided to bypass God’s plan for local churches and formed a “special committee” of Anglicans, Presbyterians, Methodists, Congregationalists, and even a few Baptists. Some of our “special committee” sprinkled babies and called it baptism. Others who understood the Scriptures correctly understood that immersion is not a mode of baptism, immersion is baptism.

Our “special committee” included a divorced pastor by the name of C. I. Scofield. R. A. Torrey said the people who made up our “special committee” were all “sound in the faith.” They chose to ignore the fact that three times in the Word of God we are told that a divorced man is disqualified from being a pastor; however, Scofield was one of their friends with a lot of influence so, our “special committee” decided to ignore these Scriptures and form a group that they called fundamentalists.

In their fourteen point creed, otherwise known as the “Niagara Creed,” point ten of their creed included “We are responsible to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian prejudices and denominational bigotry.”

Baptism Became A Denominational Bigotry

Nothing is mentioned in their creed promoting the local church or baptism, as these two important Bible doctrines could not be a part of their new para-church movement if they were going “to keep the unity.” For the first time in two thousand years, God’s pastors and God’s local churches were pushed aside and our new para-church “movement” became the spearhead of what we called “fundamentalism.”

Dumping The Truth For Unity

The goal was, “to keep the unity.” Anyone who would suggest anything contrary to the creed would be guilty of, “sectarian prejudices and denominational bigotry.”

- Sectarian, “religious beliefs typically regarded as heretical.”
- Prejudice, “Opinion not based on reason.”
- Bigot, “Intolerant toward those who hold different opinions.”

Prejudices And Bigotry?

For the sake of unity, R. A. Torrey, A. C. Dixon, W. B. Riley, Lewis Sperry Shafer, C. I. Scofield, and other “fundamentalists” agreed to reduced the major Bible doctrines concerning the local church and baptism to a “different opinion.”

For the sake of unity, we approved a creed that determined that those who were true to the doctrine of baptism by immersion were promoting “bigotry.” We sacrificed Bible doctrine for the sake of unity with baby baptizers and had the gall to call it “fundamentalism.”

Our “special committee” compiled the works of many writers and issued them in twelve volumes. These twelve volumes were later printed in a four- volume set. They sent what they considered to be “The Fundamentals” of the Word of God to about 300,000 ministers, missionaries, and other workers in different parts of the world. The fact that our “special committee” included a group of leaders with many different doctrinal beliefs, indicates their reasoning was humanistic rather than Scriptural. Had they reasoned together using the Word of God as their foundation, they never would have compromised to form a group of men with many different opinions concerning Bible doctrine. The fact is, if they had checked the Scriptures they never would have bypassed God’s pastors and God’s local churches to form a “special committee” in the first place. They thought they needed a big organization with some big named people so they set aside Bible truth to accomplish their goal.

The Committee And The “Universal Church” Virus

One of the contributors on the “special committee” was Anglican Bishop, John Charles Ryle. He wrote an article in The Fundamentals concerning what he called the “True Church” (Referring to the so-called universal church). He supported his position with absolutely no Scripture. What else could he do? No Scripture can be found to support his position. The “universal church” virus was one of the foundational blocks for what we call fundamentalism. Ryle began his discussion with the question “Do you belong to the one true Church?” Ryle’s question plainly suggests that your local church is not the “true church.” Referring to their “special committee” Ryle also said, “Its members are entirely agreed on all the weightier matters of religion, for they are all taught by one Spirit.”

John Charles Ryle

Agreed On The Weightier Matters???

If the truth be told, Anglicans, Presbyterians, and Baptists were not “of one mind” concerning baptism; however, the truth could not be told if they were going to keep the unity of the group. Keeping the unity of the group was more important to their “special committee” than defending the important doctrines of baptism and the local church, and these compromisers called it fundamentalism. Baptism is one-third of the command of Christ in Matthew 28:19; however, nothing is written in all of their twelve volumes about baptism and for the sake of unity our compromising, “fundamentalists” remained silent about it.

We Found A Better Way

The new movement presented an open door to scores of para-church ministries. Colleges, newspapers, magazines, and the movement itself became the new focus.

“Written For Our Admonition”

God’s plan for Israel was very plain, and it was very simple. Israel was divided into twelve tribes. God had ordained priests to teach, and in turn parents were to lead their families in the way of the Lord.

Deuteronomy 6:4-8,

“And these words, I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.”

The word tribe and tribes is in the Bible over 350 times. It was God’s plan for Israel. It was God’s purpose to show Himself powerful through His tribes.

First Corinthians 1:27-29,

“But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen... That no flesh should glory in his presence.”

Israel Wanted To Be “Like All The Nations”

First Samuel 8:20,

“That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.”

God did not need His people to take things into their own hands and fight their battles like, “all the nations.” When God’s people trust God, He takes care of His people. Israel should have trusted God in Samuel’s day and then claimed the promise, “I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem” (Zechariah 12:9). Samuel pleaded with the people to keep doing things God’s way; however, we read, “Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us” (First Samuel 8:19). Israel did not like God’s plan and refused to stay with it.

We Made The Same Mistake

Our local churches were reduced in value as the movement took the preeminence. The God-given title of pastor was far less impressive than president, professor, administrator, director, editor, and such like. Any ministry that is organized outside of the local church is not part of a church, it is part of a movement. God has not given any instructions concerning how movements are to operate so everyone was free to “do that which was right in his own eyes.”

We Did Not Learn From Israel’s Rebellion

God’s Plan For Israel Was Tribes.

Numbers 30:1,

“Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes...saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.”

Numbers 24:5,6,

“How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel! As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river’s side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters.”

Psalms 78:55,

“He...made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.”

Israel’s New Plan Looked Good At The Beginning

Israel’s first King was King Saul. His principle focus was to conduct a confrontation against the Philistines. Israel’s new organization appeared to be a much better plan than a group of seemingly insignificant tribes without a central leader. Israel’s second King was King David. His kingdom looked great at the beginning; however, following King Saul, King David, and King Solomon, God’s Word declares that about eighty percent of Israel’s kings did “evil in the sight of the LORD.” When we reject God’s way we pay dearly for our rebellion. God is not mocked!

Judges 13:1 says, “The LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.” Soon we find God’s people in total bondage in Babylon and Assyria.

God’s Plan For Our Age Is Also Plain And Simple

For Israel, it was priests teaching the people and parents training their families to do what God commands. God’s plan for our day is local churches. Acts 15:5 says, “And so were the churches established.” God gave pastors who are to teach “faithful” men, who shall be able to teach others also” (Second Timothy 2:2).

Ephesians 4:11,12 says, “And he gave...pastors and teachers...For the perfecting of the saints.” The plan was plain, and it was simple. God wanted pastors teaching the Word of God and parents teaching their children to follow God’s Word.

Ephesians 6:4 says, “And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.”

“The Elders Gathered Themselves Together”

First Samuel 8:4 says, “The elders gathered themselves together” and decided they wanted to do it like the world did it. In the late 1800s and early 1900s, preachers “gathered themselves together” because they were concerned about the advancement of modernism and liberalism. They decided something needed to be done to combat our Philistines. They decided we needed a “movement” to stand against modernism and liberalism. They called it “fundamentalism.” Preachers decided God’s local churches, scattered everywhere, could not handle the threat. Like Israel, we forsook God’s way and went the way of the world. We determined to organize our movement outside of the local church.

The World Has Colleges

We organized colleges and the influence of pastors faded and the influence of presidents took control. Soon the phrase, “As goes the colleges, so goes the churches” became an unscriptural fact.

God's plan for our age is "elders (pastors) in every city" (Titus 1:5). However, editors now have more influence than most pastors. Scores of ministries, with no Scriptural foundation are still springing up around the world. There are now thousands of "fundamental" para-church ministries "doing that which is right in their own eyes."

To add to our fundamental confusion, in the last fifty years, new issues have come to the forefront with many "fundamentalists" taking different stands concerning these issues, or taking no stand at all. A partial list includes such important issues as, Bible translations, music standards, dress standards, Calvinism, Lordship salvation, repentance and separation.

While many fundamentalists continue taking many different positions on these issues, it becomes obvious that the word fundamental means many different things to many people. The term now raises more questions than it answers.

I have been a Christian for fifty-nine years. I have seen fundamental groups come and I have seen them go. I have watched different groups of fundamentalists form their own "core of beliefs concerning what they thought was important." I have watched fundamentalists change their position on such issues as the King James Bible, music standards, dress standards, separation, repentance and other issues. These things were, and are, being set aside for "new modern ideas" of fundamentalism.

I remember when The World Congress of Fundamentalists met in Edinburgh, Scotland in 1976. In the resolutions under, "We Believe" they said,

"A fundamentalist maintains an immovable allegiance to the inerrant, infallible, and verbally inspired Bible. A fundamentalist believes that whatever the Bible says is so. A fundamentalist judges all things by the Bible and is judged by the Bible and is judged only by the Bible."

Would not Pentecostal churches, Brethren churches, Calvinists, Jack VanImpe, and most TV evangelists say that is what they believe?

They said,

"A fundamentalist maintains an immovable allegiance to the inerrant, infallible, and verbally inspired Bible."

What Bible? Today, there are many people running under the banner of fundamentalism using different translations of the Word of God.

They said,

"A fundamentalist believes that whatever the Bible says is so."

Wouldn't every Christian denomination say they believe that?

They said,

"A fundamentalist judges all things by the Bible and is judged by the Bible and is judged only by the Bible."

If all fundamentalists "judge all things by the Bible" how is it we have fundamental leaders leading people in so many different directions?

It is wrong to judge the motives of the founders of fundamentalism; however, the Bible is very plain about methods. The fact remains that we never needed to join the worlds' list of "isms." All we had to do was stay with God's program like we did for nearly 2000 years. "The house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth" (First Timothy 3:15).
